Cheryl Abla,

M.A., believes deeply in all students' capacity to achieve at high levels and is passionate about helping educators use their full potential to make a positive impact on students. At McREL International, Cheryl trains and coaches K–12 teachers and school leaders on effective instructional strategies, problem-based learning, classroom technology, teacher coaching, English-language-learner supports, and creating engaging school cultures and climates. Prior to joining McREL, she taught grades 1–12 for over twenty years; served as a national facilitator for the FACES, Inc. charter education program; and was the director of both a Parents as Teachers district program and a Migrant Education Even Start district program. Drawing on her extensive and diverse classroom experience, she has presented at educational conferences around the United States and the Pacific. She has authored several articles for McREL's Changing Schools magazine and is a co-author of Tools for Classroom Instruction that Works.

Sharing from recent Cheryl Abla workshops from an Assistant Superintendent, Educational Services, Southern California:

⇒ “Cheryl Abla possesses a unique gift! In essence, she is able to genuinely speak to educators from all levels. Her knowledge and approach are so invaluable that we continue to invite her back to our district so that she can continue to help us grow. As students are our number one priority, Cheryl Abla is student-centered and all educators should have the pleasure of learning from her.”
