

Presenting:

Tools to Support English Learners in Constructing Competent Written Responses with Presenter Kate Kinsella, Ed.D.

Monday, March 4, 2019

Orange County Department of Education
D Conference Center, Rooms D1001-3
200 Kalmus Drive
Costa Mesa, CA 92626
8:30 a.m.— 3:00 p.m.
Registration Includes Lunch

Institute Description: Dr. Kinsella details cross-curricular writing instruction imperatives for educators serving English learners and striving readers, including a focused yet accessible analytic rubric for each assignment, targeted lessons on language and rhetorical devices for specific writing types, explicit analysis of an appropriate writing model, and brief, frequent doses of interactive, teacher-mediated writing practice to build critical competencies for longer, independent assignments. Participants leave with extensive practical resources to facilitate immediate implementation and provide site-based support to colleagues.

Participants will learn essential ELD instructional routines including effective ways to:

- ◆ Introduce and unpack a model paper exemplifying the critical elements of a writing type: informative, opinion, argument
- ◆ Frontload rhetorical conventions and academic language for specific writing types
- ◆ Design academic interactions that guide students in applying vocabulary, syntax and rhetorical devices they can deploy in subsequent written work
- ◆ Structure teacher-mediated doses of scaffolded writing to build foundational competencies for extended responses
- ◆ Review well-written language objectives addressing lesson writing demands

Target Audience/s:
Grades 3-10 Teachers,
Instructional Coaches,
District and Site
Administrators

Kate Kinsella, Ed.D. is a teacher educator at San Francisco State University and a highly sought-after speaker and consultant to school districts and state departments throughout the U.S. regarding development of academic language and literacy across the K-12 subject areas. Her 30 year career focus has been equipping youths from diverse backgrounds with the communication, reading and writing skills to be career and college ready. A consummate “teacher’s teacher”, Dr. Kinsella maintains active K-12 classroom involvement by writing and implementing curriculum, co-teaching lessons, and providing practical mentoring for teachers and instructional coaches. Her extensive publishing record includes articles, chapters, English learners’ dictionaries, English Language development curriculum, and reading intervention programs. She is particularly proud of the research validated and extensively implemented programs she has written to support English learners in making academic strides: READ 180, English 3D, and the Academic Vocabulary Toolkit.

Sharing from recent Kate Kinsella workshops

- ⇒ Dr. Kinsella is an amazing presenter. I appreciate the resources that were shared so I could easily implement.
- ⇒ Kate is great! Great applicable resources! Guided Practice and great examples (videos)! Meaningful content!
- ⇒ Dr. Kinsella is so knowledgeable and presents information clearly with great resources. Definitely a teacher’s teacher!
- ⇒ I found the focus on partnering techniques and how to elicit oral academic language from the students the most helpful.
- ⇒ I can take all of my learnings and apply them TOMORROW! Yay, thank you!
