

Outstanding Instructional Leader 2022

The Outstanding Instructional Leader Award for CASCD is designed to acknowledge and honor educators who have made a significant contribution to student learning, influencing and advocating for professional growth, and demonstrating instructional leadership to ensure success for each learner. Any individual actively involved in education who meets the criteria may be nominated. Due by January 15, 2023

CASCD Outstanding Instructional Leader Award

This award will be given annually to recognize an individual educator who has significantly contributed to education in California. This educator will have significantly impacted/influenced public education in educating the whole child either through influence, advocacy, leadership, or teaching. The award nomination is given in recognition of Helen Heffernan who has provided California with outstanding service, keen insight, vision and leadership in curriculum and instruction. The individual being recognized will receive this award at a board meeting or another meeting of their choice. The Membership/Governance Committee and Executive Director will recommend an individual yearly for this award.
